Alex is a corporate and securities associate in our New York office.

Alex specializes in the representation of emerging growth companies throughout their lifestyles.

Alex's practice focuses on company formation, corporate counseling, venture capital financings, and mergers and acquisitions. Alex represents a wide variety of technology companies from software, artificial intelligence and machine learning, healthcare, and finance, as well as a number of leading venture capital firms.

Alex was previously the founder of Mountain Labs, a healthcare IT company based in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and uses his experience as an entrepreneur to advise his clients on difficult issues faced by startups. In his free time, Alex can be found underwater scuba diving in the Great Lakes or the Caribbean.
