Andrew is a corporate fund associate in our Boston office.

Andrew specializes in the formation, organization and operation of venture capital and other private equity funds and their general partner and management company entities, including representing fund clients in connection with their investments. Andrew counsels funds in all stages of their fundraising and organization, including preparing offering materials, negotiating with investors regarding fund formation matters and drafting partnership, limited liability company and other governance agreements. After fundraising, he counsels fund managers on all aspects of day-to-day operations. Andrew also has significant experience advising fund managers and investors in connection with secondary purchases and sales of fund interests.

Prior to joining the firm, Andrew was a fund formation associate at Proskauer Rose LLP. Andrew holds a J.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Law, where he served as Editor-in-Chief of the Connecticut Law Review. Prior to law school, Andrew was a capital markets associate with Ipreo LLC (now called IHS Markit) where he advised bulge bracket investment banks on their IPO and secondary offering underwritings.
