

Daniel M. Green

PARTNER

Silicon Valley

E dgreen@gunder.com

P +1 650 463 5210

International technology company and VC specialist with a Silicon Valley perspective.

Dan works with emerging growth technology companies and VC funds that invest in those companies. His practice encompasses all areas of corporate and securities law, including company formation and financing, public offerings, debt transactions, corporate governance and investor-side financings. Dan has particular expertise with international transactions and is the co-head of the firm's Latin America practice group. His focus is Latin America and Europe—he is fluent in Spanish—where he represents companies and U.S. and international VCs, as well as corporations investing and pursuing business opportunities in those regions.

Recent transactions handled by Dan include AlienVault's sale to AT&T, Cornershop's M&A activity, PlayGiga's sale to Facebook, recent financings by PayClip, Konfio, Kavak, Credijusto, Conekta and NotCo, and many recent investments by Valar Ventures, ForgePoint Capital and other VC funds. He is an active member of several international entrepreneurship organizations and a frequent speaker at Latin American entrepreneurship and venture capital conferences. Dan is admitted to practice in California, New York and Massachusetts.

EDUCATION

- Harvard Law School, J.D.
- Stanford University, B.A., International Relations

FOCUS

- Investor Side Financings
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Emerging Companies

G U N D E R S O N D E T T M E R

- Venture Financings
- Corporate Services
- Public Offerings/Public Companies

ADMISSIONS

- California
- New York
- Massachusetts