Nick is a corporate and securities associate in our Los Angeles office.

Nick's practice focuses on venture capital financing transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and general corporate representation of emerging growth and venture-backed companies throughout their lifecycle, including corporate governance, securities laws compliance, and commercial agreements. He represents companies in a wide variety of industries, including software, artificial intelligence, virtual and augmented reality, digital media, fintech, life sciences, and consumer products. He also represents venture capital firms and strategic investors who finance and acquire these companies.

Nick earned his JD from Loyola Law School in Los Angeles, where he was the Editor-in-Chief of the Loyola of Los Angeles Entertainment Law Review and received the Otto Kaus Award for Excellence in Legal Scholarship. Prior to attending law school, he worked as a freelance journalist, photographer, and publicist in Seattle, focusing on music, food, and digital media.
