Olga is a tax and venture fund partner.

Olga's practice focuses on formation, organization and operation of venture capital funds, incubators and their general partner and related management company entities. She advises funds in all stages of their operations, including preparation of offering materials, negotiation with investors, drafting of governance agreements, counseling related to financing activities and all aspects of day-to-day operations. Olga also advises clients on compliance matters relating to securities laws and other regulations applicable to venture capital funds.

Olga is also broadly experienced with all areas of general corporate and partnership income taxation including structuring tax-efficient commercial and transactional structures for our fund and corporate clients.
