Robert is the firm's Assistant General Counsel - Operations

Robert is the firm's Assistant General Counsel – Operations and is a firm-wide resource. Robert has a wealth of experience in civil litigation, data protection, compliance, and healthcare. He advises the firm on risk management and other legal matters related to day-to-day business operations.

Prior to Gunderson Dettmer, Robert was in-house at multiple healthcare start-ups and the University of Massachusetts Medical School. He also has a decade of litigation experience in the Boston area.

Outside of the office, Robert enjoys spending as much time as he can with his wife, three children, and beloved mutt “Waffles.” Robert is a lover of all things Boston, especially its professional sports teams.
