

Gunderson Dettmer Partner Recast Capital Announces the Eighth Cohort of its Enablement Program

Firm News

March 26, 2024

Gunderson Dettmer's partner Recast Capital announced the eighth cohort of its Enablement Program. Recast Capital's Enablement Program and other Recast Capital-sponsored programs support emerging managers, including those who identify as women or non-binary.

Gunderson's sponsorship reflects the firm's dedication to fostering diversity, equity, and inclusion within the innovation economy, specifically supporting women, non-binary, and other underrepresented managers. Through our ongoing partnership with Recast Capital, Gunderson has solidified its position as a trusted advisor for many of these emerging managers.

Boston Partner Nick Guttilla had this to say about Recast Capital, "It's been an incredible honor to work alongside Recast and see the talent they continue to attract to their programs. This is our third year sponsoring Recast, and the impact is impressive. We're excited to support the great work of these emerging managers."

As we honor Women's History Month, Gunderson Dettmer proudly reaffirms our commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion in venture capital. Our partnership with Recast Capital showcases our dedication to creating an equitable VC landscape. Together, we are reshaping the future of VC, one investment at a time, and driving meaningful change that extends far beyond our industry.
