

Austin-based Ironspring Ventures Announced $100M Fund II

Client News

June 27, 2024

Gunderson Dettmer represented Austin-based client Ironspring Ventures in the formation of Ironspring Fund II, a $100 million fund. The firm plans to invest in 20 startups in the manufacturing, construction, transportation and energy industries.

In the announcement of the fund formation, the Ironspring Ventures team said, “Together with the support of our portfolio company founders, our LPs, our network, and our extended community, we’re committed to creating a more productive, sustainable, and secure industrial supply chain. Our boots are on the ground, our shirtsleeves are rolled up, and we’re ready to continue building.”

The Gunderson Dettmer team was led by Steve Franklin and Jonathan Goodwin and included Zeynep Tekin, Angel Chan and Emma Meyer.
