

CNBC Quotes Andrew Luh in “Harris-Trump election has Big Tech ‘at a crossroads’ after slump in dealmaking”

Insights

September 17, 2024

CNBC included M&A partner and Chair of Gunderson’s M&A practice, Andrew Luh, in a recent analysis of the technology M&A market with fellow leaders from HP, Adobe and Cisco.

The article provides insights into the landscape by referencing technology deals that have been shaped by a regulatory crackdown under the Biden administration, pushing companies like Adobe and Amazon to either walk away from deals or face significant delays. With the added antitrust scrutiny, companies can expect this careful deal-making approach to continue into 2024.
