

Valor Econômico Interviews Adan Muller and Shares Gunderson Dettmer Data in “After a Rally in Q2, Venture Capital Investment Falls 46%”

Insights

December 23, 2024

Gunderson Dettmer data and insights from partner Adan Muller are featured in Valor Econômico’s article, “After a Rally in Q2, Venture Capital Investment Falls 46%.”

The article leverages Gunderson’s data to further support KPMG’s analysis of the decline in venture capital investments during the third quarter of 2024, while also offering a look ahead to 2025. Adan notes that many startups are returning after surviving tough times by stretching previous investments, with some reaching a “breakeven” point while others are adjusting their valuations and raising funds through alternative methods.
