

Forbes Recognizes 5 Gunderson Dettmer Clients in Fintech 50

Client News

February 13, 2024

Forbes recognized 5 Gunderson Dettmer clients in its 9th annual Fintech 50 list. The list features firms that continue to innovate, grow and adapt in the ever changing market. Forbes evaluated hundreds of fintech companies, looking at a variety of factors from product novelty to customer and revenue growth to leadership team diversity.

In this year's list, Payments, Wall Street & Enterprise and Business to Business Banking—made the strongest showing, accounting for 27 of the 50 picks and seven of the 13 first-time honorees.

Congratulations to the following Gunderson Dettmer clients.

Addepar, a cloud-based platform that helps private banks, RIAs and family offices track their clients' portfolios across different currencies and asset classes.

Gauntlet, a platform that aims to help decentralize finance exchanges to manage risk, while optimizing profitability.

Kin Insurance, an insurance platform reimagining home insurance for every new normal.

Kudos Technologies, an app that offers a browser-based smart assistant that helps shoppers pick the best reward card in their wallet for each online purchase.

Unit, a platform to help companies launch vertical banks and build financial services into their products.
