

Beehive AI Emerges from Stealth with $5.1M Seed Round

Client News

June 1, 2023

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Beehive AI, the first specialized AI platform dedicated to analyzing customer data, in its oversubscribed $5.1 million seed financing led by Valley Capital Partners. By analyzing unstructured, open-ended data, combined with quantitative data, Beehive AI helps major global enterprises extract new research with unprecedented accuracy, relevance, and scale. The new capital will be used to support rapid growth.

In the announcement of the transaction, Beehive AI CEO Shai Deljo said, “Recently, large language models like GPT-4 have made tremendous progress. Beehive AI takes this progress to the next level by tuning generalized AI to specialized domain models trained for unique sets of data and outcomes. The quality and specificity of these custom models are unparalleled, allowing enterprises to extract rich, relevant insights from even the most complex unstructured data.”

The Gunderson Dettmer deal team was led by Nic Markman and included Marissa Boykin.
