The FutureWork Playbook episode 3, “Investing in People and Performance: How to Put the “S” in ESG,” hosted by partner and chair of employment & labor practice Natalie Pierce, releases today.

Natalie speaks with founder and CEO of Valor Performance, Sarah Milby, to discuss the importance of coaching and upskilling in the modern workforce. Valor Performance combines human coaching with technology to provide a personalized coaching experience for leaders while offering data-driven insights to organizations to help make decisions around leading their workforce.

In the episode, the two discuss the importance of the “Social” pillar, how businesses, policies and missions drive impact on people and why businesses should invest in their workforce and upskill rising leaders to fill skills gaps and improve retention and engagement.

Top Takeaways from this episode include:

1. The Power of Personalized Coaching
2. Coaching Fosters Behavior Change and Connection
3. Prioritizing Human Performance Sustainability
