Private Fund Focus Part II:
Alternative Strategies for Unlocking LP Liquidity

As the venture ecosystem evolves, fund managers are seeking creative ways to provide liquidity to limited partners without transferring portfolio securities to third parties. In the second installment of Gunderson Dettmer's Private Fund Focus series, we'll explore cutting-edge strategies and complex transaction structures that are reshaping the liquidity landscape.

Part II will focus on fund-level transactions. This session will cover:

- Transfers of LP Interests: Transferring limited partnership interests in a Fund, including by way of tender offers.
- Continuation Vehicles: Transferring assets to a new fund controlled by the same manager.
- Complex Transaction Structures: How fund managers are restructuring funds to meet liquidity needs without transferring illiquid assets.

1 MCLE credit will be offered for NY PP (transitional/non-transitional) and 1 for CA general (participatory).
