

Tia Announces New Investment from Melinda Gates' Pivotal Ventures

Client News

March 7, 2023

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Tia, a modern medical clinic for women, in its new investment from Pivotal Ventures, a Melinda French Gate's company. Tia provides in-person and virtual care to support women's physical, mental and reproductive health, all in one place. The company's fundraising totals $150 million, and this latest round will be used to support its mission of providing holistic, preventive healthcare to women.

In the announcement of the transaction, cofounder and CEO of Tia Carolyn Witte said, "My vision is that every primary care provider starts delivering mental health as routine primary care and that every primary care provider clinic eventually looks and feels like Tia's."

The Gunderson Dettmer deal team was led by Randall Clark and included Saarah Woodby, Jessica Brodman and Emma Light.
