

Sageview Capital Invests in Uncountable $27M Series A Financing

Client News

June 17, 2025

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Sageview Capital as the lead investor in the $27 million Series A financing of Uncountable, a leading platform for digital transformation in industrial research and development, with participating investors SE Ventures, Teamworthy Ventures and 8VC. Uncountable offers a cloud-based solution for R&D environments, enabling companies to unify experimental data, accelerate product development cycles, and deploy AI-driven optimization tools.

The new financing will allow Uncountable to deepen its AI and machine learning capabilities, expand partnerships in product quality and lifecycle environments and further scale customer support to meet growing demand across regulated and data-intensive industries.

In the announcement of the transaction, Uncountable co-founder and CEO Noel Hollingsworth said, “We’re proud to partner with Sageview at this pivotal moment for Uncountable. Their expertise in scaling SaaS platforms and commitment to long-term collaboration makes them an ideal partner as we help the world’s most innovative companies transform how they build and launch new products.”

Caitlin Vorlicek, Principal at Sageview Capital, added, “Uncountable is addressing a significant upgrade cycle in R&D departments, where the ability to leverage AI depends on addressing the existing lack of unified data systems across laboratories. We are thrilled to support Uncountable’s continued momentum and scale through our network and go-to-market expertise.”

The Gunderson deal team was led by Zach Crowe and included Bailey Malchow, Alexander Weaver, Jeff Salomon, and Sarah Benamara.
