

NextView Ventures Announces $200M New Investment Funds

Client News

October 11, 2022

Gunderson Dettmer represented client NextView Ventures, in the announcement of its two new investment funds, a $135 million seed-stage fund of NextView Ventures V, and a $65 million opportunity fund of NextView All Access I. Together, the two funds total $200 million. NextView Ventures' will use its new capital to invest in companies that use technology to drive a brighter collective future for everyday people.

In the announcement of the new funds, Partner at NextView Ventures Stephanie Palmeri said, "While the number of seed funds and dollars invested at seed has been growing exponentially over the past year, NextView has consistently supported founders at the earliest stages of their startup journeys. I'm excited to partner early with tenacious founders who share a North Star of building exceptional end-user experiences for individuals, families, workers, and communities and to invest alongside a team of the most genuine, hardworking, and high-integrity VCs I know."

The Gunderson Dettmer deal team was led by Nick Guttilla and included Sujata Awasthi, Luke Charette, and Emma Eriksson Broomhead.
