This ranking further demonstrates the leadership of our Latin America practice and the region's continued market growth.

"Gunderson has a longstanding commitment to Latin America having done work in the region since 2005 and understands the cyclicity of markets. We are fortunate to represent many best-in-class startups and venture capital funds in the region that are well-positioned to take advantage of opportunities ahead, and remain committed to assisting our clients with these opportunities," said Dan Green, Co-leader of the Latin America practice.

Below are details on several noteworthy transactions in 2022 among numerous early stage and late stage transactions focused on Latin America:

This bolsters our continued confidence in the long-term prospects for the region, while we help our clients navigate today’s choppy waters, especially from our newly opened office in Sao Paulo, Brazil,” said Brian Hutchings, Co-leader of the Latin America practice.

These first half results reflect Gunderson Dettmer’s continued market leadership in the venture capital marketplace and reinforces previous recognition as the most active law firm in the world every year since 2014.
