

Veza Announces Emergence from Stealth Mode with $50M Series C Financing

Client News

April 27, 2022

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Veza, a developer of a data security platform, in its emergence from stealth mode and the closing of its $50 million Series C financing led by Accel. Veza, formerly known as Cookie.ai, sells subscription software that helps businesses see which of their employees have access to certain customer or corporate data and enables its clients to stay secure. The new fund will be used by Veza to expand its operations and business reach.

The Gunderson deal team was led by Michael Irvine and included Damon Zhangchai, Travis Glock, and Matthew Tseng.
