

Mexico-Based Fintech Digitt Announces $10M Series A

Client News

August 20, 2025

Gunderson Dettmer represented Digitt, a Mexico-based fintech company, in its $10 million Series A financing led by Yolo Investments, with participation from IGNIA Partners and Capria Ventures.

Digitt is dedicated to helping prime borrowers refinance their debt through affordable, flexible, and predictable loans. By leveraging cutting-edge technology and a deep understanding of the local market, Digitt addresses the financial challenges faced by creditworthy individuals who are subjected to exorbitant interest rates by traditional banks.

In the announcement of the transaction, Digitt founder and CEO David García Aceves said, “This round was only possible thanks to the relentless execution of the most mission-driven team out there — each of us obsessed with our customers’ financial wellbeing, committed to doing what’s right for them, and delivering the experience they deserve.”

The Gunderson deal team was led by Dan Green and Brian Willbur and included Felipe Hasenohr.
