

Integrity Growth Partners Leads Pest Share $28M Series A Financing

Client News

September 10, 2025

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Integrity Growth Partners as the lead investor in the $28 million Series A financing of Pest Share, the leading on-demand pest control platform for residential property managers.

Pest Share modernizes pest control through a new, tech-centric business model that integrates directly with property management systems, automating service dispatch and connecting residents with a national network of vetted service providers. The company will use the new capital to accelerate Pest Share's expansion across the single-family and multifamily rental markets, advance product innovation and deepen partnerships with leading property management platforms.

In the announcement of the transaction, Integrity Growth Partners co-founder and managing partner Doyl Burkett said, "Pest Share has created a modern, automated, and tech-enabled solution for a problem that touches nearly every property manager. We're excited to back a team that deeply understands the industry's operational pain points and has built a platform that fundamentally changes how pest services are delivered and managed."

The Gunderson deal team was led by Zach Crowe and included Alex Weaver and Sam Collier.
