

Bitrise Raises $60M Series C Financing

Client News

November 23, 2021

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Bitrise, a mobile DevOps platform, in its $60 million Series C financing led by Insight Partners. Bitrise's platform is designed to craft mobile applications at every development stage. The new capital will enable the company to enhance its products to be easily operated in the integration and delivery space.

In the announcement of the transaction, vice president at Insight Partners Josh Zelman said, "Bitrise has been building towards the current moment in mobile since its launch eight years ago. Mobile has become a primary means of communication, entertainment and commerce for people around the world, and Bitrise has enabled enterprises to keep up with mobile innovation at an ever-increasing pace. Bitrise was purpose-built for mobile, and the company has become a leader in the mobile DevOps space."

The Gunderson deal team was led by Richard Hesp and included Taylor Sarkaria and Ali Blum.
