

Brave Care Agreement with Mednax, Inc. to Enhance Pediatric Care

Client News

October 7, 2021

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Brave Care, a modern pediatric primary and urgent care medical platform, in its agreement with Mednax, Inc. to develop new, innovative pediatric primary and urgent care clinics throughout the United States. The goal of the combination is to significantly enhance the provision of pediatric care.

In the announcement of the agreement, CEO of Brave Care Darius Monsef said, “With this exciting investment, Brave Care is now even better positioned to help open more pediatric facilities around the country, elevating care experiences and dramatically increasing the chance that every child reaches their full potential. We created Brave Care from the experience that every parent needs a trusted partner in their child’s medical team, and that every child deserves access to excellent care regardless of their family’s financial position.”

The Gunderson deal team was led by Randall Clark and included Micah Kantrowitz, Madeleine Vella, Ally Kaleita, Rosie Stein, Evelina Yarmit, and Diana Aguilar.
