

2025 CVCA Annual General Meeting & Private/Venture Capital Summit in Beijing

Firm News

December 8, 2025

Gunderson Dettmer is proud to have sponsored the 2025 CVCA Annual General Meeting & Private Equity/Venture Capital Summit, held on December 3, 2025, at the Park Hyatt Beijing. The event brought together leading investors and industry experts from across China to exchange insights, discuss market strategies, and share practical perspectives on the evolving investment landscape.

Richard Chang, Corporate Partner and Head of Gunderson Dettmer's Beijing office, participated as a speaker on the panel "Macro Trends and Industry Strategies from a VC Perspective." He joined distinguished panelists — Annabelle Long (Founding and Managing Partner, BAI Capital), Hao Chen (Vice Chairman, Legend Capital), Duane Kuang (Founding Managing Partner, Qiming Venture Partners), Erhai Liu (Founding and Managing Partner, Joy Capital), and Allen Zhu (Managing Director, GSR Ventures) — for an in-depth discussion on venture capital strategies, industry trends, and future opportunities in the Chinese market.

Founded in 2002, CVCA is the oldest and most influential venture capital and private equity industry association in Greater China. It is dedicated to fostering the healthy and sustainable development of the venture capital and private equity sectors in the Greater China region. With over 100 member companies, CVCA represents many of the most prominent and influential equity investment institutions, both domestic and international.
