

Greenoaks Capital and Lightspeed Venture Partners Co-Lead $120M Series D Financing of Zetwerk

Client News February 2, 2021

Gunderson Dettmer represented clients Greenoaks Capital and Lightspeed Venture Partners as they co-led the $120 million Series D investment in Zetwerk, a provider of end-to-end global supply chain solutions.

In the announcement of the transaction, partner at Greenoaks Capital Neil Shah said, "We are excited to partner with Zetwerk on the next leg of their journey, as they expand their value proposition globally. Zetwerk's operating system for manufacturing has digitized multiple supply chains end-to-end, ensuring on-time delivery and high quality standards. This has led to rapid growth in India and internationally, with the potential to quickly become one of the most important manufacturing platforms globally."

The Gunderson deal team was led by Jonathan Pentzien and included David He.
