

Kaszek Ventures Co-Leads Azos R$125 Million Series C

Client News

March 13, 2026

Gunderson Dettmer represented Kaszek Ventures as the co-lead investor in the R$125 million Series C financing of Azos, a Brazil-based insurtech focused on individual life insurance.

Azos has developed an AI-powered policy subscription solution that delivers approval or rejection decisions in seconds, reducing a process that once took days to just hours. The company is also building an AI-driven tool designed to help brokers sell more effectively.

“The world is in a moment of inflection, and we believe that traditional insurers are behind in implementing AI solutions,” said Azos co-founder and CEO Rafael Cló, in a Brazil Journal article profiling the transaction. “Now is the best time to scale these products.”

The Gunderson deal team was led by Adan Muller and included Rafa Bellaver.
