

Ready Raises $54M Series C Financing

Client News

September 16, 2020

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Ready, an on-demand medical care service, in its $54M Series C financing from GV, Deerfield Management, City Light Capital, Town Hall Ventures, Frist Cressey Ventures and others. The financing enables Ready to continue strengthening its operations in the midst of rapid expansion throughout 2020.

In the announcement of the transactions founder and CEO of Ready Justin Dangel said, “Ready’s growth echoes the desire in communities across the country to receive quality healthcare from the comfort of their home. We’re able to deliver this unique healthcare experience thanks to our incredible team of professionals who have set a new standard for in-home care. With this financing, we can expand our service offerings, bring more quality care directly to more patients and keep building a team of talented individuals who share our values and believe in our mission.”

The Gunderson deal team was led by Randall Clark and included Aliya Sanders, Saarah Woodby, Darryl Long, Mary Prager and Amanda Ferber.
