

Sageview Capital Leads Alacriti's Growth Investment

Client News

May 20, 2026

Gunderson Dettmer represented Sageview Capital as the lead investor in the strategic growth investment of Alacriti, a leading payments-focused fintech. BMO Capital Partners and Curql Fund also participated in the investment.

Alacriti is a payment infrastructure platform provider, enabling financial institutions and their customers to move money across a multitude of payment rails. With this investment, Alacriti is expanding its Orbipay Platform across key areas, including AI-driven intelligence, fraud prevention, and programmable money capabilities, further strengthening its ability to deliver secure, future-ready money movement experiences for financial institutions and businesses.

“Alacriti is exceptionally well positioned at the center of payments modernization, real-time money movement, and fraud prevention,” said Sasank Chary, Partner at Sageview Capital, in the announcement of the transaction. “The Alacriti team has demonstrated sustained execution and a clear vision for where payments are headed, and we look forward to supporting the company as it scales into its next phase of growth.”

The Gunderson deal team was led by Zach Crowe and included Sandra Lucero.
