Amanda is a Corporate Fund Associate in our New York office.

Amanda advises venture capital and other private equity fund managers on the formation, organization, and operation of their investment funds and related management entities. Her practice includes counseling sponsors on fund structuring, preparing offering and governance documents, and negotiating with institutional and other investors on fund terms and side arrangements.

She supports fund managers through the full lifecycle of their platforms, from first-time fund launches to successor funds, and assists with ongoing operational, regulatory, and compliance matters. Amanda's experience in law firm practice management and financial reporting informs her pragmatic approach to fund economics, investor relations, and day-to-day operational issues.
