

Accel leads Series C investment in Guru

Insights

April 20, 2020

Gunderson Dettmer client Accel led the $30 million Series C investment in Guru, a collaborative knowledge management platform.

In the announcement of the transaction Guru's co-founder and CEO Rick Nucci said, "The importance of trusted knowledge has only increased now that companies of every size are transitioning to remote work, changing their services to meet needs, and responding to sudden drops (or increases) in demand. We're proud to support our customers as they face these unique and unprecedented challenges. Given recent events, we are increasing our commitment to making sure that collaborative knowledge management feels easy and is attainable for all teams."

The Gunderson Dettmer deal team was led by Nick Harley and included Sogoal Salari, Zahrah Fadel, Juan Garavito Janer and Emily Lieberman.
