

Volition Capital raises $600M in two funds

Client News

December 19, 2019

Gunderson Dettmer client and growth equity firm Volition Capital announced its latest funds, totaling $600 million. The Boston-based firm raised $400 million for Volition Capital Fund IV, L.P., and $200 million for its first select fund, Volition Capital Select Fund I, L.P.

Volition Capital invests in high-growth companies providing e-commerce, consumer products, internet-enables services and cloud software that have had no institutional funding to date.

The Gunderson Dettmer deal teams were led by Malcolm Nicholls and included Brian Huber, Andrew Fink and Sujata Awasthi with support from David Myerson and Gabrielle Paradis.
