Tiger Global leads Series C2 financing of NoBroker

Client News

October 1, 2019

Gunderson Dettmer client Tiger Global led the Series C2 financing round of NoBroker, a Bangalore-based real estate property operator. Existing investor General Atlantic also participated.

According to the company, which operates in Mumbai, Bengaluru, Pune, Chennai, Hyderabad and Gurugram, with the latest round of funding, NoBroker has raised $121 million so far.

In the announcement of the funding NoBroker co-founder and CEO Amit Kumar Agarwal said, "The current funding will help us provide the service to more customers across the country and accelerate our deal closure growth. We will continue to add value across the user journey with continuous refinement of our home store and financial services products."

The Gunderson Dettmer team was led by Jonathan Pentzien and included Jolyn Ang and Vanessa Ho.
