Zach is a corporate associate in the New York office.

Zach specializes in the representation of emerging growth companies throughout their lifecycles, with a particular focus on public mergers and acquisitions and other strategic corporate transactions. His practice includes general corporate counseling, venture capital and growth financings, and complex M&A matters. Zach works with technology, media, and entertainment companies, drawing on his prior experience in the entertainment industry to advise clients on transactions involving content, IP, and media assets.

Before joining Gunderson Dettmer, Zach practiced at a leading international law firm and gained in-house legal and business affairs experience at major entertainment and talent organizations, including a global film studio and premier talent agencies. This background enables him to provide practical, commercially focused advice to clients navigating both corporate and industry-specific considerations.
