

OpenGov raises Series D financing

Client News September 3, 2019

Gunderson Dettmer client OpenGov, the leader in enterprise cloud solutions for government, announced its $51 million Series D funding. The financing round was led by Weatherford Capital and 8VC, with participation from existing investor Andreessen Horowitz.

In the announcement of the funding OpenGov CEO Zac Bookman said, "This new investment validates OpenGov's position as the leader in enterprise cloud solutions for government, and it fuels our ability to build, sell, and deploy new mission-critical technology that is safe and trusted choice for government executives."

The Gunderson Dettmer deal team was led by Jared Grauer and included Stephanie Lane and Hannah Porter.
