Stephanie is a data privacy associate in the Strategic Transactions & Licensing group.

Stephanie advises high-growth technology companies and venture capital firms on strategic data privacy and cybersecurity matters. Her practice includes advising on financings and M&A diligence, data breach response, product counseling, and developing compliance programs. She also counsels clients on the evolving AI regulatory landscape and has co-authored analyses of emerging AI legislation in California, Connecticut, Florida, Massachusetts, Texas, and Washington, D.C.

Before joining Gunderson, Stephanie was a privacy and cybersecurity associate in Sidley Austin LLP's New York office, where she advised clients in the semiconductor, financial services, healthcare, and e-commerce sectors. She also previously served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Robert W. Lehrburger, U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Southern District of New York and as a consumer protection intern in the Federal Trade Commission's Office of International Affairs.
