

Gunderson Dettmer represented Booker Software in acquisition deal

Client News

March 12, 2018

Gunderson Dettmer served as lead counsel to Booker Software in its $150 million acquisition by Mindbody.

The Gunderson Dettmer deal team was led by corporate partner Steven Baglio along with partner and Mergers & Acquisitions practice group chair Andrew Luh, partner Lisa Gorrin, corporate and securities associate Hilary Adams, executive compensation associate Deidre Kalenderian, intellectual property associate Emily Lieberman and associate Cassie Averbuch.

Booker Software is a web-based platform enabling businesses to sell their services online, through their website, network of partner sites and apps.
