

Gunderson Dettmer Announces New Partners

Firm News

January 7, 2015

Gunderson Dettmer Stough Villeneuve Franklin & Hachigian, LLP has announced the promotions of seven associates to the partnership, effective January 1, 2015, bringing the total number of partners to 55.

“We are delighted to welcome these seven, very talented individuals as new partners,” said Robert V. Gunderson, Jr., Chairman of the firm. “The firm has experienced strong growth in each of its offices and these new partners will help us maintain the responsiveness and quality of service that our clients, which include a significant majority of the most prominent venture capital firms in the world as well as many of the fastest-growing global technology and life science companies, expect and deserve.”

The seven new partners are:

Charles Glass, Venture Fund and Corporate, New York. Charles specializes in the structuring, formation, organization and operation of venture capital and private equity funds and in representing emerging companies and venture capital investors. He received his J.D. from Columbia University and his B.A. from the University of Colorado.

Lisa Gorrin, Executive Compensation, New York. Lisa specializes in executive compensation for start-ups, emerging growth, and public companies. She received her J.D. from Columbia University and her B.A. from Dartmouth College.
