Brian is a fund partner in our Boston office.

Brian supports venture capital and growth equity fund managers on all aspects of the fund lifecycle. Brian has significant experience advising fund managers on issues related to fundraising, GP management, and economics, including the tax and structuring aspects of fund formations and investments globally. He helps clients navigate complex issues in the evolving legal and regulatory landscape, such as the impact of recent tax reform on investment and organizational decision-making. Mr. Huber also has significant experience advising fund managers and investors in connection with secondary purchases and sales of fund interests.

Brian has spoken extensively on tax reform issues affecting the fund industry, including with regard to carried interest, the impact on tax exempt U.S. and non-US investors, and international tax structuring. He is an active member of the ABA Business Law Section's Private Equity and Venture Capital Committee and previously served as co-chair of the board of directors for the Massachusetts LGBTQ Bar Association. Brian has also participated as a delegate at the National LGBT Bar Association's Affiliates Congress Annual Meeting.
