

Matter Venture Partners Announces $300M Inaugural Fund to Invest in HardTech

Client News

March 28, 2024

Gunderson Dettmer represented client Matter Venture Partners in the formation of its $300 million inaugural fund. The company is focused on building the next generation of HardTech startups developing the technologies that matter most.

In the announcement of the fund formation, Matter Venture Partners co-founder Wen Hsieh said, “The world has realized that most if not many of the foundational technologies and trends of our society today are built on hard tech. That really puts wind behind ourselves. We came out successful and unscathed in a very positive way, and we’re very lucky to have raised money at a tough time.”

The Gunderson Dettmer team was led by Steve Franklin and Jonathan Goodwin and included Zeynep Tekin and Ally Eagan.
